

Hey! Look Us Over

It's Fun Day for the Volunteers for Children of the Harbor General Hospital and their adult friends but it's really "for the kids." The group's "Day at the Races" at Hollywood Park on June 4 will benefit the "kids", who are patients in the hospital's pediatric wards for whom the Volunteers work the year round. In a "getting to know you" mood these Volunteers from left, Mmes. Robert Eatherly, Manhattan Beach, Fred J. Roberts, Torrance, Jon M. Rice, Palos Verdes, Kenneth Geer, Redondo and Paul Taylor, Gardena, visit the tracks to get a look at the prize race horses. The public is invited to join the group for the day and may secure tickets by calling Mrs. Kenneth Geer, Mrs. Robert Eatherly, or Mrs. James Cassell.

To Local Seniors

Award Scholarships

Torrance Woman's Club presented two $200 educational scholarships to two local high school seniors at their last meeting.

Recipients were Iris Imamura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Imamura, 21317 Talisman St. and Laura Suzanne McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Galbraith, 2522 Brian Ave.

Iris, who attends West High, is active in the Latin, Forensic and Scholarship clubs. She is enrolled at UC, Santa Barbara, and plans to be a home economics teacher.

Laura, a South High student, is a member of the Art and Pep Clubs, Senior Hi-Y, GAA and Scholarship Society. Planning to teach English, she has enrolled at Chapman College.

Mrs. Mark-Wright served as chairman of the scholarship committee and was assisted by Mrs. R. E. Moffitt.

Dianas Aid Drive To Put Youth on Jobs

Redondo Beach Dianas, Junior Women's Club, have begun addressing 10,000 postcards to be sent to all Redondo Beach residents and businessmen explaining the need to hire South Bay youths for summer work.

The postcards are from the South Bay Employment Service. "To Put Youth on the Job" is their slogan. It is a community sponsored organization working with the California State Employment Service.

Some of the jobs the students are available for are bus boys, baby sitters, car washers, delivery boys, gas station attendants, mothers helpers and typists.

Helping the Dianas will be the Girl Scout Troop 1158, which they sponsor.

Anyone interested in obtaining any additional information may call Mrs. Philip MacBride.

Vocational Nurse Retires After 15 Years

Love of Children Influences Late Career

MRS. SALLY JENKINS
... Retires

Mrs. Sally Jenkins, who has made Torrance her home since 1943 and who, for the past 15 years has been a vocational nurse at Harbor General Hospital, was honored at a surprise retirement coffee Saturday given by her daughter, Mrs. Robert Voien, and a friend Mrs. Mary Riggles. Many neighbors and friends were on hand for the event.

Pediatrics has been Mrs. Jenkins' favorite ward during her years at Harbor General.

Hard work and children's care are not strangers to Mrs. Jenkins, whose early life involved the raising of younger brothers and sisters on a small farm near Goshen, Utah, following the early death of her mother. She proudly remembers her father as preacher, acting mayor and central figure in this pioneer town.

She was married to Chester W. Jenkins, who became a foreman at a large Provo Steel Plant. She then began rearing her own family of seven children, later to become adviser in the rearing of her 24 grandchildren.

During World War II, she found time to teach First Aid and Home Nursing classes while she awaited news of her three sons overseas.

After moving to Torrance in 1943, she was active in PTA, painted ceramics, and saw her three youngest children graduate from Torrance High, attend El Camino college, and her youngest son graduate from San Jose State College.

Nearing her 50th birthday, Mrs. Jenkins for the first time sought work outside her home. She became an aide at Harbor Hospital. Two years later she was graduated with honors from one of the first vocational nursing courses. She has seen the hospital grow from converted barracks to its present multi-story structure.

With her retirement, she plans to spend time visiting her children and grandchildren in northern California, Idaho and Utah, but those who know her best say "it is likely that such busy hands and talents for service will keep her active and "on call."

Las Fiestadores Go 'International'

With vacation days just ahead and travel the popular conversation topic, Las Fiestadores staged an "International Holiday" as its May dance. The Holiday Inn on Airport Blvd. was the scene of the gala dinner dance. Each table was decorated to represent a country.

Installation of the club's new officers was a highlight of the evening and carrying out the "International" theme, the new officers were presented with pilot wings. The 1965-66 board members are Messrs. and Mmes. C. M. Trezise, president; R. L. McDonald, first vice president; R. J. Triplitt, second vice president; W. O. Clausing, treasurer; and E. E. Clayton, secretary.

A cocktail party was held prior to the dinner-dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Miller, 2313 W. 229th St. On the committee were Messrs. and Mmes. R. W. Clayton, Jim Gordy, Don Moyer and R. J. Triplitt.

Following the dinner at Holiday Inn, dancing to music furnished by Les Tronzier was enjoyed.

Dancers included Messrs. and Mmes. J. V. Agapito, Henry Backlund, J. A. Barrington, W. C. Boswell, J. B. Brooks, W. O. Clausing, W. E. Christian, E. E. Clayton, R. W. Clayton, R. R. Dexter, J. A.
